

Using Decorative Stitches

Notebook Cover

Great Beginner Class! Notebook covers are great for school, keeping a diary, or just for doodling. You only need scraps of fabric, fusible fleece and a spiral notebook on hand to complete this fun project! Explore all kinds of fabric combinations to make a one-of-a-kind notebook cover - and use up some of your scraps while at it! And how about those decorative stitches you never get around to playing with on your sewing machine? Well now we will!

Supplies:

Various scrapes of fabric in lengths of at least 20" or more

20" x 10" of fusible batting

10" x WOF for inside lining and pocket

Thread to match or blend

Sewing machine in good condition

New Needle Size #14

Marking Pencil

Straight Pins

Scissors